What does PWC do?

PWC connects, educates and empowers women of all ages and backgrounds to actively participate in their community through mentorship, networking and volunteerism. We provide scholarships for girls and women of all ages. We created Basket Bingo, which is held annually and benefits a different local nonprofit each year. We organize and host monthly events. We enjoy each other's company. We support our community.

What does it mean to be a member?

Membership dues support our mission by covering administrative costs for our community events and our club. To be a member simply means that you support our mission.
